

TCCV Weekend Event

Rusty Springs

Enjoy a Perfect Getaway from the Hustle and Bustle of Everyday Life at Rusty Springs.

Rusty Springs in Avenal is the brainchild of Bob and Judi McGrath.

Bob wanted somewhere to house his collectable Jaguar, so he built a nice double story shed. It was much too large and too good to store just one car, so they decided to evolve it into a perfect getaway for one or two couples - "The Barn".

He carried on building and building and building, ending up with a unique venue which is now an ideal getaway for Car Clubs and Social Groups.

Bob created a fabulous streetscape of shops and other buildings, with motel-style-themed-rooms behind each façade, accommodating a maximum of 33 people.

Themed Rooms Available:

Doctors Surgery	1 Queen, 1 Single	Bank	1 Queen
Fire Station	1 Queen	Barber Shop	1 Queen
Police Station	2 Singles	General Store	2 Singles
Mayor's Office	2 Singles	Lock Up Goal	1 Queen
Butcher Shop	1 Queen	Brothel (Fluffy hand cuffs on the bed. Known as Patricia's Palace of Pleasure)	1 Queen
Chapel	1 Queen	Iron Monger	1 Queen
Lawyer's Office	1 Queen	Bakers Shop	1 Queen
Maids Parlour	2 Singles	Butlers Chambers	2 Singles

The street is formed in a large square with the centre being the gathering area with lounge chairs, dining tables, bookcases, a very large homemade very warm pot belly stove, and lots of collectables like 88 electric kettles.

Being a fully licenced establishment, Bob built Brewery Lane Lounge where visitors can purchase and enjoy their tipples in comfort.

All Rooms have split air-conditioning and heating. Those on the "main street" have heated flooring.

To find out more about the venue:

Contact: New owner Kim Aramini
Email: benmore2@bigpond.com
Website: <http://www.rustysprings.com>.
Phone: 03 5796 2593

TCCV Weekend Event

Rusty Springs

28 Hovell Street, Avenal

Date: 10th-11th November 2018.

Saturday:

Meet at (details TBA) and travel to Avenal, stopping for lunch (details TBA).

For dinner, to save motoring somewhere and being restricted if you want to drink, Rusty Springs will put on a Mystery Dinner. By staying put at the venue, you can retire to your room at your leisure, or party on as stamina allows.

We will have a fun night. In keeping with the venue's ethos, the Mystery Dinner requires us to dress appropriately, matching your room's theme. There will be lots of other fun things happening too. Keep your small change!

Sunday:

After the supplied breakfast, we are off on a very scenic tour of the surrounding areas, stopping for lunch (details TBA).

We will start the tour with a visit to the original Avenal General Store for a nice coffee and to discover their finest antiques, merino and possum knitwear, and accessories.

After lunch we will head back home, stopping for afternoon tea (details TBA).

Rooms can be allocated in advance giving you a chance to acquire the dress-ups as required for your room. You have to wear your dress-ups at the Mystery Dinner on Saturday night. If you presently have appropriate garb, we can allocate the matching room, so book quickly.

This is the bit that's hard to believe.

Apart from drinks at Brewery Lane, everything else
- the accommodation, breakfast and Saturday night Mystery Dinner - will cost only $160 a double - not each.

Let's get together, have lots of fun,
and enjoy using our Triumphs.

To register your attendance and secure your room:

Contact Organiser Mal Clark:

Phone: 0411 072 585

Email: shadow74@bigpond.com.
