

Heritage of Motoring and Goodwood Revival tour

8th to 15th September 2025 provisional itinerary

Day 1,

8th September, meet at London hotel, where we stay overnight after a welcome dinner. (B,D)

Day 2,

9th September, Visit Brooklands Museum, Brooklands, home of worlds first purpose-built motor racing circuit, then on to The Cotswold Motor Museum at Bourton-on-the Water. Overnight hotel TBC.(B)

Day 3,

10th September, Visit British Motor Museum, Gaydon, to view the world's largest collection of British cars followed by an afternoon visit to Jaguar at Castle Bromwich. Stay overnight Redditch. (B)

Day 4,

11th September, A morning visit and factory tour of Morgan Cars Company at Malvern. In the afternoon we travel to the Georgian City of Bath and overnight. (B,D)

Day 5,

12th September, after a morning visit to the world-famous Roman Baths, we visit Haynes Motor Museum, near Yeovil in Sommerset, overnight Bournemouth TBC. (B)

Day 6,

13th September, today we concentrate on the extensive National Motor Museum at Beaulieu and its world-famous collection of over 280 vehicles, the historic 16th century Palace House and the magnificent gardens on the banks of the Beaulieu River, then make our way to Portsmouth our home for the next two nights, (B)

Day 7,

14th September, A full day at The Goodwood Revival, including admission and grandstand pass. This evening, we dine together perhaps reliving the experiences of the day and contemplating our last day to come.(B,D)

Day 8,

15th September, the final visit of the tour will be to Caterham Cars and their new, state of the art, factory and enjoy a factory tour like no other, Super 7 and all! In the afternoon we return to London where it all started! (B)

