Saturday 10 October 2026

Depart Motel

Morning Tea at Tallangatta Bakery

Drive to Corryong and visit

- Jack Riley's Grave (the man from Snowy River)

Lunch at Corryong Courthouse Hotel

- Man from Snowy River Museum

Return from Corryong along the river Road which flows between the Snowy Mountains to the Murray. A really lovely drive.

Travel through

- Walwa
- Granya
- Bellbridge

You pass through places such as Towong (where you can see the beautiful racecourse, site of famous Annual New Year Races & where Phar Lap was filmed) and Farrans Lookout (a view to behold). Too many other features to list.

A small detour of about 500 metres (not far from Albury) will take you to the Hume Dam Wall/Spillway from which you can look back at the weir or over the spillway down to the river. The weir is 6 times the size of Sydney Harbour (volume)

Return to Motel

Dinner Chinese Restaurant Albury – Banquet for all at $35 per head.

Sunday 11 October 2026

Depart Motel at 9 am

Morning Tea at Rutherglen Caffeine Machine (45 minutes to 1 hour for look around and time to get coffee, cake, other snack)

Silo Art Trail

- Tungamah
- St James
- Devenish
- Goorambat

Lunch Glenrowan (To be arranged)

Have a look at town, including new Ned Kelly Museum

Return at leisure to Motel. A good easy aside is to deviate into Chiltern. A lovely historic 1800's gold mining town with wide verandahs, etc, (Only the horse troughs seem to have gone). Ride a Wild pony was filmed here.

Dinner SS&A Club (Soldiers, Sailors and Airmen) Again walking distance.
